THE WORLD'S SECOND GREATEST THREAT

As readers of this Brief should already know by now, the world's greatest threat is the globalist Deep State conspiracy which has (and is strengthening) a stranglehold on our liberties which it pretends is only necessary to save us from all crises, including this exaggerated virus. This week I will present to you powerful evidence of the second greatest threat. I am going to take you on a dark journey through the mind of one of China's top military thinkers as he outlines to a high level delegation of Chinese Communist leaders in the late 1990s the entire future blueprint of China's plans to destroy America and take over the entire world. Throughout the years in writing the Brief I have foretold almost everything this Chinese general brags about, but without hard evidence until now.

General Chi Haotian was the Chinese Minister of National Defense from 1993-2003 as well as the vice chairman of the Chinese Communist Party's Central Military Commission. This speech was smuggled out of China by an anti-communist and translated into English in 2005 by the Epoch Times for all the world to read. Our intelligence people have long ago read and analyzed it, but neither they nor the controlled media have ever seen fit to alert the American public to this grave threat—because the Deep State wants this next World War to happen in order to drive Americans into the arms of a militarized global government “To save us.” This is one of the most important briefings I have ever published.

The content of this speech should shock you to the very core. It is candid, sophisticated, hard core and blunt. China follows Sun Tzu's “Art of War” philosophies in feigning weakness, and concealing all their actions and intentions. They would never admit that this speech exists. If it ever got out into general circulation, it would be China's worst nightmare, destroying decades of propaganda. If ever confronted with its contents, they would take a page out of the Deep State's disinformation handbook and proclaim it to a forgery—that is how you get the truth discredited. When they tell us someone forged a letter or speech, it follows by implication that the content must be false as well. But it is not necessarily so. It wouldn't surprise me if our Deep State intel agencies came to China's rescue and tried to back up China's claim that it must be a forgery. The fact that this speech has been out since 2005 and no one has picked it up in the media means that both the Chinese and the Deep State want it buried.

I am grateful to Jeff Nyquist for bringing it to our attention. Although a conspiracy denier about our own government's nefarious globalist agenda, he is fully aware that Russia and China are still our biggest external threats as reflected in his writings. Jeff passed along an excerpt of this speech a while ago in his blog about how the Chinese were intending to use biological weapons to cleanse America, which I mentioned in a recent brief. But now that I have seen the whole speech, I realized it is a goldmine of proof about everything I have ever said about Red China.

In short, the speech outline how China has used the appearance of economic freedom to fool the US into opening up trade with her, and how the Chinese are funneling those trade profits into building a massive military weapons program, intent on conquering America, killing its people, and eventually ruling the entire world. Most shocking of all is a full blown admission that they intend to be much more brutal and ruthless than the Nazis or the Japanese ever conceived of. Here are the most important excerpts of this speech, with my comments and organization titles to help understand the implications of the General's words.

He starts out talking about a survey they conducted (in private) among the Chinese educated class, trying to find out how willing these people would be to go along with a brutal war against America, including whether or not they would be willing to shoot innocent women and children. (Some US academics did a similar survey among US Marines over a decade ago seeking to see how well they would be willing to follow ruthless orders, as well.)

The Survey: You probably understand why we wanted to know, whether the people would rise against us if one day we secretly adopt resolute means to "clean up" America. Why didn't we conduct the survey through administrative means instead of through the web? We did what we did for a good reason.

First of all, we did it to reduce artificial inference and to make sure that we got the true thoughts of the people. In addition, it is more confidential and won't reveal the true purpose of our survey. But what is most important is the fact that most of the people who are able to respond to the questions online are from social groups that are relatively well-educated and intelligent. They are the hard-core and leading groups that play a decisive role among our people.

Of course, a few people under western influence have objected to shooting at prisoners of war and women and children. Is everybody crazy? Some others said, "The Chinese love to label themselves as a peace-loving people, but actually they are the most ruthless people. The comments are resonant of killing and murdering, sending chills to my heart." [This last statement from a Chinese intellectual, is very true.]

The central issue of this survey appears to be whether one should shoot at women, children and prisoners of war, but its real significance goes far beyond that. Ostensibly, our intention is mainly to figure out what the Chinese people's attitude toward war is: If these future soldiers do not hesitate to kill even non-combatants, they'll naturally be doubly ready and ruthless in killing combatants. Therefore, the responses to the survey questions may reflect the general attitude people have towards war.

Actually, however, this is not our genuine intention. The purpose of the CCP Central Committee in conducting this survey is to probe people's minds. We wanted to know: If China's global development will necessitate massive deaths in enemy countries, will our people endorse that scenario? Will they be for or against it?

Control of the whole world: Comrade Jintao, has also pointed out repeatedly and emphatically that "development is our top priority," which should not be neglected for even a moment. But many comrades tend to understand "development" in its narrow sense, assuming it to be limited to domestic development. The fact is, our "development" refers to the great revitalization of the Chinese nation, which, of course, is not limited to the land we have now but also includes the whole world.

Racial Superiority: *Therefore, we can assert that we are the product of cultural roots of more than a million years, and a single Chinese entity of two thousand years... This is the Chinese nation that calls itself, “descendants of Yan and Huang,” the Chinese nation that we are so proud of. Hitler’s Germany had once bragged that the German race was the most superior race on earth, but the fact is, our nation is far superior to the Germans.

Chinese Manifest Destiny: *In reviewing history, one may ask: Will the center of the world civilization shift back to China? ...Therefore, if we refer to the 19th century as the British century, and the 20th century as the American century, then the 21st century will be the Chinese century.

China Won’t Make Germany’s Mistakes: Germany was defeated in utter shame, along with its ally, Japan. Why? We reached some conclusions at the study meetings of the Politburo, in which we were searching for the laws that governed the vicissitudes of the big powers, and trying to analyze Germany and Japan’s rapid growth. When we decide to revitalize based on the German model, we must not repeat the mistakes they made.

Specifically, the following are the fundamental causes for their defeat: First, they had too many enemies all at once, as they did not adhere to the principle of eliminating enemies one at a time; [This bolsters my long-held analysis that they won’t go after Europe first, other than perhaps their nuclear weapons sites, but want to de-capitate the US military and then blackmail the rest of the West into submission.]

Second, they were too impetuous, lacking the patience and perseverance required for great accomplishments [The Chinese are masters of patience and deception—per Sun Tzu];

Third, when the time came for them to be ruthless, they turned out to be too soft, therefore leaving troubles that resurfaced later on... So, the fundamental reason for the defeats of Germany and Japan is that history did not arrange them to be the “lords of the earth,” for they are, after all, not the most superior race. [Talk about supreme arrogance!]

And yet, if we really are to make a comparison between Germany and China, then, as Comrade Jiang Zemin put it, Germany belongs to “pediatrics” – too trivial to be compared. How large is Germany’s population? How big is its territory? And how long is its history? We eliminated eight million nationalist troops in only three years. [Bragging about their ruthlessness.] How many enemies did Germany kill? They were in power for a transient period of little more than a dozen years before they perished, while we are still energetic after being around for more than eighty years. Our theory of the shifting center of civilization is of course more profound than Hitler’s theory of “the lords of the earth.” Our civilization is profound and broad, which has determined that we are so much wiser than they were.

Contempt for Representative Government: The reason that the United States remains today is that it has never seen war on its mainland. Once its enemies aim at the mainland, these enemies would reach Washington before its congress finishes debating and authorizes the president to declare war. But for us, we don’t waste time on these trivial things. Comrade Deng Xiaoping once said, “The Party’s leadership is prompt in making decisions. Once a decision is made, it is immediately implemented. There’s no wasting time on trivial things like in capitalist countries. [It is true that Americans cannot conceive of our nation being attacked, let alone invaded and occupied.]

Defiant toward God: Our Chinese people are wiser than the Germans because, fundamentally, our race is superior to theirs. As a result, we have a longer history, more people, and larger land area. On this basis our ancestors left us with the two most essential heritages, which are atheism and great unity... We are destined “not to be buried by either heaven or earth” no matter how severe the natural, man-made, and national disasters. This is our advantage.

This is true defiance of God, and adds to my contention that there is a Satanic conspiracy at root in the Chinese conspiracy of power against “God and Man” just like in our own globalist cabal. However, the claim of “great unity” refers to their Communist hierarchy—not the people, which their survey reveals are not eager to go to war with the world.

What makes us different from Germany is that we are complete atheists, while Germany was primarily a Catholic and Protestant country. Hitler was only half atheist. [Actually, he was totally atheist and in a conspiracy with the occult as well.] Although Hitler also believed that ordinary citizens had low intelligence, and that leaders should therefore make decisions, and although German people worshipped Hitler back then, Germany did not have the tradition of worshipping sages on a broad basis. Our Chinese society has always worshipped sages, and that is because we don’t worship any God. Once you worship a god, you can’t worship a person at the same time, unless you recognize the person as the god’s representative like they do in Middle Eastern countries.

China’s Three Primary Goals: The three lessons are: Firmly grasp the country’s living space; firmly grasp the Party’s control over the nation; and firmly grasp the general direction toward becoming the “lord of the earth.”

All the naive American businessmen in China who have talked themselves into “China being forced to moderate because of their dependence on world trade,” need to read this.

1) living space: Our resources are in very short supply. The environment is severely polluted, especially that of soil, water, and air. Not only our ability to sustain and develop our race, but even its survival is gravely threatened, to a degree much greater than faced by Germany back then.

Evasion of the term Living Space: But the term ‘living space’ (lebensraum) is too closely related to Nazi Germany. The reason we don’t want to discuss this too openly is to avoid the West’s association of us with Nazi Germany, which could in turn reinforce the view that China is a threat. Therefore, in our emphasis on He Xin’s new theory, “Human rights are just living rights,” we only talk about “living,” but not “space,” so as to avoid using the term “living space.” To solve this problem, we must lead the Chinese people outside of China, so that they could develop outside of China [i.e. conquer other nations].

Eye on America: Anybody who has been to Western countries knows that their living space is much better than ours. They have forests alongside the highways, while we hardly have any trees by our streets. Their sky is often blue with white clouds, while our sky is covered by a layer of dark haze. Their tap water is clean enough for drinking, while even our ground water is so polluted that it can't be drunk without filtering. They have few people in the streets, and two or three people can occupy a small residential building; in contrast, our streets are always crawling with people, and several people have to share one room.

It said that, due to our following the American style of consumption, our limited resources would not long support the population and society would collapse, once our population reaches 1.3 billion. Now our population has already exceeded this limit, and we are now relying on imports to sustain our nation.

2) The Supremacy of the Communist Leadership: The first is to promote the “Three Represents” theory, stressing that our Party is the pioneer of the Chinese race, in addition to being the pioneer of the proletariat. Many citizens say in private, “We never voted for you, the Communist Party, to represent us. How can you claim to be our representatives?” [Good question!]

There's no need to worry about this issue. Comrade Mao Zedong said that if we could lead the Chinese people outside of China, resolving the lack of living space in China, the Chinese people will support us. At that time, we don't have to worry about the labels of “totalitarianism” or “dictatorship.” Whether we can forever represent the Chinese people depends on whether we can succeed in leading the Chinese people out of China.

Personally, I don't buy that the Chinese people think about more living space. The Chinese that have escaped to America don't want hoards of poor Chinese overrunning the place any more than they liked it in China. This is an excuse or deception fed to the Communist leaders by their arch dark side leader, Satan—the same line he fed to Hitler.

Why the Communists allowed enough freedom to boost the economy: Everyone knows that without the leadership of our Party, China would not exist today. Therefore, our highest principle is to forever protect our Party's leadership position. Before June 4, we realized vaguely that as long as China's economy is developed, people would support and love the Communist Party. Therefore we had to use several decades of peacetime to develop China's economy.... [but] if we only develop the economy, we still face the possibility of losing control. [The stark realization that even partial economic freedom, leads to a longing for political freedom, as in Hong Kong.]

The Chinese Reds almost lost power during Tiananmen Square uprising: *The June 4 [1989] riot almost succeeded in bringing a peaceful transition; if it were not for the fact that a large number of veteran comrades were still alive and at a crucial moment they removed Zhao Ziyang and his followers, then we all would have been put in prison. After death we would have been too ashamed to report to Marx.

It was more than a riot—it was a full-scale uprising, which the globalist world refused to support. But what is more interesting is his phrase, “after death we would have been too ashamed to report to Marx.” This deserves some further analysis.

I don’t believe for a minute that this is a reference to the Buddhist belief in the cycle of death and rebirth (as ghosts, animals or rarely as a human) called samsara—which is based upon the notion of good works leading to a final “nirvana” where the samsara cycle stops. The Communists despise all religion and never attempt to integrate such notions into their core beliefs.

But here we have a General addressing the possibility of having to report back to Marx on their failure to conquer the world and crush freedom. I believe this reference is yet more evidence that the Chinese conspiracy is a Satanic conspiracy, where (as in the Faustian Bargain) Satan promises fame, wealth, power and even immunity from illegal and immoral acts on earth.

It is actually my further contention based upon a reference in chapter 14 of Isaiah that Satan also promises the highest echelons of his leaders on earth, immunity from the “chains of hell” if they help him overthrow God’s purposes on earth. Of course, Satan can’t deliver on this, but the promise has to be enticing, even to atheists just in case there is life after death.

So after this life, they get sent to hell like all truly evil men that have made pacts with the Devil. And there they wait for Satan to finally win and come down to rescue them. That is what I believe Isaiah saw in vision, as described in the 14th chapter, speaking of Satan descending into hell:

Isaiah 14:9 “Hell from beneath is moved for thee to meet thee at thy coming; it stirreth up the dead for thee even all the chief ones of the earth; it hath raised up from their thrones all the kings of the nations.” [Implying that many if not all of the people who rise to the highest levels of power, and who are evil, have made pacts with Satan.]

14:10, “They shall all speak and say unto thee, [shocked, as they see him descend in chains] ‘Art thou also become weak as we? Art thou become like unto us?’”

14:11,12 “Thy pomp is brought down to the grave.. How art thou fallen O Lucifer, son of the morning! How art thou cut down to the ground, which did weaken the nations.”

14:16,17 “...saying, ‘Is this the man that made the earth to tremble, that did shake kingdoms; that made the world as a wilderness and destroyed the cities thereof; THAT OPENED NOT THE HOUSE OF HIS PRISONERS?’”

That last phrase to me directly implies the promise of immunity from the chains of hell, which he fails to achieve. What a dramatic scene Isaiah saw and it should serve as a witness to all that these evil conspirators will see justice someday.

Plan to Gain Allegiance of the People: After the June 4 riot was suppressed, we have been thinking about how to prevent China from peaceful evolution and how to maintain the Communist Party’s leadership. We thought it over and over but did not come up with any good ideas. If we do not have good ideas, China will inevitably change peacefully, and we will all become criminals in history [they know they are evil]. After some deep pondering, we finally come to this conclusion: Only by turning our developed national strength into the force of a fist striking outward – only by leading people to go out – can we win forever the Chinese people’s support and love for the Communist Party. [Another deception. Even though many Germans were initially pleased with Hitler uniting the German people, most quickly began to realize the invasions were aggressive and wrong—well before the end.]

*Therefore, the June 4 riot made us realize that we must combine economic development with preparation for war and leading the people to go out! Publicly we still emphasize economic development as our center, but in reality, economic development has war as its center!

Take heed all you American capitalists who have blindly rushed to China to build cheap products for more profit—you are guilty of helping build the Chinese war machine.

WWIII: Therefore, we will not hesitate to fight a Third World War, so as to lead the people to go out and to ensure the Party's leadership position. In any event, we, the CCP, will never step down from the stage of history! We'd rather have the whole world, or even the entire globe, share life and death with us than step down from the stage of history!

Step by Step Plan: History led us on this path. First, China's long history has resulted in the world's largest population, including Chinese in China as well as overseas.

Second, once we open our doors, the profit-seeking western capitalists will invest capital and technology in China to assist our development, so that they can occupy the biggest market in the world.

Third, our numerous overseas Chinese help us create the most favorable environment for the introduction of foreign capital, foreign technology, and advanced experience into China. [All those Chinese students in America.] Thus, it is guaranteed that our reform and open-door policy will achieve tremendous success.

Fourth, China's great economic expansion will inevitably lead to the shrinkage of per-capita living space for the Chinese people, and this will encourage China to turn outward in search for new living space. [In other words, they want their people cramped up and dissatisfied to help motivate them into supporting China's attack on the West.]

Fifth, China's great economic expansion will inevitably come with significant development in our military forces, creating conditions for our expansion overseas. Ever since Napoleon's time, the West has been alert for the possible awakening of the sleeping lion that is China. Now, the sleeping lion is standing up and advancing into the world, and has become unstoppable! [Sadly, true.]

America is the Target: What is the third issue we should clinch firmly.... It is to hold firmly onto the big "issue of America." This appears to be shocking, but the logic is actually very simple... The renaissance of China is in fundamental conflict with the Western strategic interest, and therefore will inevitably be obstructed by the western countries doing everything they can. So, Only by breaking the blockade formed by the western countries headed by the United States can China grow and move toward the world!

Would the United States allow us to go out to gain new living space? First, if the United States is firm in blocking us, it is hard for us to do anything significant to Taiwan, Vietnam, India, or even Japan, [so] how much more living space can we get? Very trivial! Only countries like the United States, Canada and Australia have the vast land to serve our need for mass colonization.

This gives evidence to my warning to Australians over the years (including in Strategic Relocation) that Australia will be occupied by the Chinese someday. They will also take New Zealand and all the Pacific Islands from Japan down into Malaysia.

Therefore, solving the “issue of America” is the key to solving all other issues... It is historical destiny that China and the United States will come to unavoidable confrontation on a narrow path and fight each other! The United States, unlike Russia and Japan, has never occupied and hurt China, and also assisted China in its battle against the Japanese. But, it will certainly be an obstruction, and the biggest obstruction! In the long run, the relationship of China and the United States is one of a life-and-death struggle. [No gratitude for the US helping China free itself from Japanese occupation.]

Of course, right now it is not the time to openly break up with them yet. Our reform and opening to the outside world still rely on their capital and technology, we still need America.

How have we managed our foreign affairs in these years? Even if we had to put on a smiling face in order to please them, even if we have to give them the right cheek after they had hit our left cheek, we still must endure in order to further our relationship with the United States. [Trump has been fooled by the smiles of both Xi Jinping and Kim Jong-un.]

Deception is Supreme: We also must never forget what Comrade Xiaoping emphasized: “Refrain from revealing ambitions and put *others off the track.” The hidden message is: we must put up with America; we must conceal our ultimate goals, hide our capabilities, and await the opportunity.

Special Means to Cleanse America: Only by using special means to “clean up” America will we be able to lead the Chinese people there. This is the only choice left for us. This is not a matter of whether we are willing to do it or not. What kind of special means is there available for us to “clean up America”?

Biological Weapons: Conventional weapons such as fighters, cannons, missiles and battleships won’t do; neither will highly destructive weapons such as nuclear weapons. We are not as foolish as to want to perish together with America by using nuclear weapons, despite the fact that we have been exclaiming that we will have the Taiwan issue resolved at whatever cost.

This thinking has been revised since this speech, so the above is not accurate anymore as I will explain shortly.

Only by using non-destructive weapons that can kill many people will we be able to reserve America for ourselves. There has been rapid development of modern biological technology, and new bio-weapons have been invented one after another. Of course, we have not been idle, in the past years we have seized the opportunity to master weapons of this kind. We are capable of achieving our purpose of “cleaning up” America all of a sudden. When Comrade Xiaoping was still with us, the Party Central Committee had the perspicacity to make the right decision not to develop aircraft carrier groups and focus instead on developing lethal weapons that can eliminate mass populations of the enemy country.

China is now building multiple carrier task forces, so that decision has been changed too.

From a humanitarian perspective, we should issue a warning to the American people and persuade them to leave America and leave the land they have lived in to the Chinese people. Or at least they should leave half of the United States to be China's colony, because America was first discovered by the Chinese. [This is based on the false anthropological notion that American Indians were of oriental ancestors] But would this work? If this strategy does not work, then there is only one choice left to us. That is, use decisive means to "clean up" America and reserve America for our use in a moment. Our historical experience has proven that as long as we make it happen, nobody in the world can do anything about us. Furthermore, if the United States as the leader is gone, then other enemies have to surrender to us.

Again, this supports my projections about America being the target of a first strike, with the Chinese counting on blackmailing the rest of the Western alliance into capitulation.

Biological weapons are unprecedented in their ruthlessness... As for the several million Chinese living in the United States, this is of course a big issue [How to save the millions of Chinese already here]. Therefore, in recent years, we have been conducting research on genetic weapons, i.e., those weapons that do not kill yellow people. But producing a result with this kind of research is extremely difficult.

The Chinese have come to realize, especially after the Covid 19 virus escaped from their lab in Wuhan, that bio weapons that target everyone will eventually come back to bite China—hence the quest for a silver bullet that only kills Westerners, and not Asians.

Genetic Weapons: Of the research done on genetic weapons throughout the world, Israel is the most advanced. Their genetic weapons are designed to target Arabs and protect the Israelis. But even they have not reached the stage of actual deployment. We have cooperated with Israel on some research. [The US globalists have always allowed Israel to sell high tech weapons to China, and to cooperate in deadly ways such as this.] Perhaps we can introduce some of the technologies used to protect Israelis and remold these technologies to protect the yellow people. But their technologies are not mature yet, and it is difficult for us to surpass them in a few years. If it has to be five or ten years before some breakthrough can be achieved in genetic weapons, we cannot afford to wait any longer.

In fact, it is not going to be possible, and even though the Chinese are still trying, and will use bio weapons against the US, they have gone back to nuclear weapons to stop a US retaliation.

Therefore, we have to give up our expectations about genetic weapons. Of course, from another perspective, the majority of those Chinese living in the United States have become our burden, because they have been corrupted by the bourgeois liberal values for a long time and it would be difficult for them to accept our Party's leadership. If they survived the war, we would have to launch campaigns in the future to deal with them, to reform them. [Beware, Chinese-Americans, you are expendable.]

We must prepare ourselves for two scenarios. If our biological weapons succeed in the surprise attack, the Chinese people will be able to keep their losses at a minimum in the fight against the United States. If, however, the attack fails and triggers a nuclear retaliation from the United States, China would perhaps suffer a catastrophe in which more than half of its population would perish.

This too is out of date. Why would the Chinese think that a retaliatory strike is inevitable when they, along with Russia, now have a massive number of warheads to do a pre-emptive nuclear strike on US military and nuclear targets which would preclude any retaliation? They aren't that stupid. The Russians and Chinese fully intend to strike US military targets in a first strike.

Absolute Ruthlessness: Maybe we can put it this way: death is the engine that moves history forward... During wartime, we were used to seeing dead people. Blood and flesh were flying everywhere, corpses were lying in heaps on the fields, and blood ran like rivers. We saw it all. On the battlefields, everybody's eyes turned red with killing because it was a life-and-death struggle and only the brave would survive.

It is indeed brutal to kill one or two hundred million Americans. But that is the only path that will secure a Chinese century in which the CCP leads the world. We, as revolutionary humanitarians, do not want deaths [A bald faced lie. They don't care how many they kill and never have]. But if history confronts us with a choice between deaths of Chinese and those of Americans, we'd have to pick the latter, as, for us, it is more important to safeguard the lives of the Chinese people and the life of our Party. That *is because, after all, we are Chinese and members of the CCP. Since the day we joined the CCP, the Party, life has always been above all else!

Never underestimate a real Communist's passion for self-preservation and willingness to destroy others.

The Ultimate Justification: *September 27 to October 1, 1995, the Mikhail Sergeevich Gorbachev Foundation, funded by the United States, gathered 500 of the world's most important statesmen, economic leaders and scientists, including George W. Bush (he was not the U.S. president at the time), the Baroness Thatcher, Tony Blair, Zbigniew Brzezinski, as well as George Soros, Bill Gates, futurist John Naisbitt, etc., all of the world's most popular characters, in the San Francisco Fairmont hotel for a high-level roundtable conference, discussing problems about globalization and how to guide humanity to move forward into the 21st century. According to what He Xin had in hand, the outstanding people of the world in attendance thought that in the 21st century a mere 20 percent of the world's population will be sufficient to maintain the world's economy and prosperity, the other 80 percent or 4/5ths of the world's population will be human garbage unable to produce new values. The people in attendance thought that this excess 80 percent population would be a trash population and "high-tech" means should be used to eliminate them gradually.

One way has been and will continue to be vaccines that poison bodies and weaken the immune system. This is the crisis we are in right now. Never take another vaccine!

Since the enemies are secretly planning to eliminate our population, we certainly cannot be infinitely merciful and compassionate to them.

Interesting how this evil conspiracy uses the evil of our own Western conspiracy to justify theirs. Little do they know Satan is running independent conspiracies among all three world predator centers, the Anglo-American globalists, Russia and China. He is undoubtedly promising each of them victory and control over the NWO order, but I think China intends to eliminate the Russian competition even if they can't defeat the West in WWII.

Another part of the speech indicates that the Chinese really think Russian Communism fell in the fall of the Soviet Union, indicating that even the Russians have not admitted to China (their presumed allies) that it was a carefully crafted deception. We can infer several things from this:

- 1) That the Chinese don't respect the Russians (having supposedly allowed Communism to fall)
- 2) That China wants back territory lost to Russia prior to WWII (Mongolia)
- 3) That Russia doesn't trust China enough to let them in on this very big secret, or sell them any of their latest weapons technology.

I have thus slightly altered my WWII scenario to include the probability that China will launch a biological attack on the US concurrent with an EMP attack prior to the big pre-emptive strike on US military targets.

For new subscribers, this attack will be allowed to fall on the US because PDD-60 (instructing our missile forces to NOT launch on warning, but to absorb a nuclear first strike) is still in force. I don't believe Trump has been briefed on it. Less than half of our nuclear missile subs are out patrolling at any one time, and their warheads are not big enough to penetrate hardened targets. Some are even being reduce to half size under the false doctrine of using "limited size nukes" to respond to a limited nuclear war. There will be no such thing.

I do not believe this current pandemic is the Chinese attempt to kill off Americans with a bio weapon for the following reasons:

1) It is not nearly deadly enough to normal people to qualify as a bio weapon. China isn't going to direct a bio weapon at the US by releasing it first on their own people. It escaped from the Wuhan lab because of poor disposal protocols.

2) China's military isn't ready yet to follow up with a real war against the West, and probably won't be fully confident and ready until the latter half of this decade.

3) China and Russia will still rely on a major provocation to justify a pre-emptive strike, and so far it still looks like North Korea will provide that provocation some time in the future when China is ready. Sadly, Trump has failed to stop NK's nuclear and missile program.

CARONAVIRUS UPDATES

Due to the length of the article above on China, I have condensed the Covid 19 stories this week into a format similar to "news shorts":

More Civil Rights Violations/Arrest Stories:

Florida: An individual was arrested at the border while traveling home to Florida on Easter weekend. As soon as he crossed the state line he was pulled over at a mandatory checkpoint on the Interstate. As you can see in the video he was given a choice: answer the questions from the officers or be arrested. Make no mistake, this is a clear violation of the 5th Amendment's provision of the right to remain silent.

Utah: Also was forcing people to fill out a form at the border.

California: Outlawed protests on state properties. “The California state government will no longer allow peaceful assemblies during the COVID-19 outbreak.”

The 2017-2018 Flu Season was as deadly as the current Covid 19 crisis, and yet there was no pandemic declared, no social distancing, and no economic shutdown. 80K people died. Gilad Atzmon has the story:

I am talking about the 2017-18 influenza that according to The American Centers of Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) was associated with “45 million illnesses, 21 million medical visits, 810,000 hospitalizations.” By September 2018 CNN announced that as many as 80,000 were dead for reasons associated with the outbreak.

The number of flu cases that year in the USA alone was about 18 times higher than the current number of Novel Coronavirus cases worldwide (2.5 million so far). The number of hospitalized American patients was more than 4 times higher than those who have been hospitalised in the USA with Coronavirus symptoms (200,000 to date). The fatalities/hospitalized ratio that year was around 0.1, about the same ratio we saw in Northern Italy last month. And if all of that isn’t enough, the number of American fatalities in 2017-18 was more than three times the deaths currently associated with Covid-19.

In the 2017-18 influenza, death rates were highest in the over-65 age group. The CDC reports that “people 65 years and older accounted for approximately 58% of reported influenza-associated hospitalizations.” But the story gets even more interesting. In the 2017-18 flu season the second most affected group was those aged 50 to 64. This is actually very unusual for influenza, as normally the second highest death rate occurs in children, from birth through age 4. Contagion-Infectious Disease Today reported in June 2018 that the “ferociousness of the 17-18 flu season overall, combined with above-average impacts on younger baby boomers, made 2017-2018 one for the record books.”

One may wonder why the CDC didn't react to the 'severity' of the outbreak that was at least three times as lethal as the current Novel Coronavirus health crisis? But, even more disturbing is the fact that despite the severity of the 2017 flu outbreak and its deadly impact, the enormous number of hospitalisations and the infectious rate, the World Health Organisation (WHO) didn't see the need to alert the world or to close the planet for business as it did this year. Peculiarly, the WHO didn't even bother to tag the American outbreak as an epidemic or pandemic. It was just an ordinary 'influenza.'

How is it possible that America failed to respond to a lethal virus that attacked almost 11% of its population and left 80,000 dead? Was it silenced or is it a story of total dysfunctionality on every possible level?

No, it is not stupidity, ignorance or dysfunctional leaders, it is a Deep State conspiracy to get people used to not having any fundamental rights, upon the flimsiest of medical excuses. We must not accept this. We must defy their rules, protest and protest some more.

Fauci Backpedals on Vitamins C and D: Dr. Mercola writes that Dr. Fauci is denying all good remedies and saying things will never get back to normal until we vaccinate the entire population. That is why they are trying to drag out the shutdowns longer and longer. "Yet, four years ago, Fauci touted vitamins C and D as good for boosting your immune system and fighting infectious disease."

Robert F. Kennedy Jr.--Dr. Judy Mikovits Exposes Fauci's Hostility to truth: Kennedy has been at the forefront of the campaign to expose vaccine danger for years, and the establishment hates him for betraying the Deep State heritage of his family (as did JFK, ultimately, and he was killed for it). In this article, he tells the history of Dr. Mikovits warning about retroviruses in all vaccines and how Dr. Fauci tried to silence her. -A must read and so is this video from Kennedy on the Truth About Dr. Fauci.

AG Bill Barr Comes to the Aid of Protestors, Sort of: Being Deep State, but trying to appear on the side of conservatives, it is predictable that Barr would come out with some form of weak support for those aggravated by the restriction of the civil rights. In addressing those governors who have closed businesses and schools and banned social gatherings, including protests, he said, "We're looking carefully at a number of these rules that are being put into place. And if we think one goes too far, we initially try to jawbone the governors into rolling them back or adjusting them," Barr said during a radio interview on the Hugh Hewitt show on Tuesday. "And if they're not and people bring lawsuits, we file statements of interest and side with the plaintiffs ... As lawsuits develop, as specific cases emerge in the states, we'll take a look at them."

Jawboning? To his credit, the DOJ's filing of a brief in support of Temple Baptist Church may have helped get the state of Mississippi to back down and dismiss the fines leveled against them over holding a church meeting in their vehicles. We need to work on a nation-wide class action suit against these emergency powers. If anyone has influence with any of the major conservative and libertarian legal defense foundations, let me know.

Facebook Censoring Protests: Facebook CEO Mark Zuckerberg says that posts and pages attempting to organize protests against stay-at-home orders will be banned as "misinformation." At Friday's White House coronavirus press conference, Trump lent more support to the protesters. "These are people expressing their views,” said the president. “They seem to be very responsible people to me, but they’ve been treated a little bit rough.”

Corona Test Flaws Confirmed: As the new coronavirus took root across America, the US Centers for Disease Control and Prevention sent states tainted test kits in early February that were themselves seeded with the virus, federal officials have confirmed. Yes, these may have been contaminated, but none of the quick tests are able to isolated Covid 19 from other corona viruses (hundreds of them), leading to thousands of false positive tests.

Using Testing to Delay Opening the Economy: The Daily Mail wrote, “In a report titled ‘Roadmap to Pandemic Resilience’ released Monday, more than 45 leading economists, social scientists, lawyers and ethicists warned that sending Americans back to work too quickly will likely cause a resurgence of COVID-19 that would cost the US economy trillions of dollars. [Same old fear tactic] ... they outlined the three main components to safely ending quarantine: testing, tracing and supported isolation - a combination known by the acronym TTSI. The most crucial part of TTSI containment is testing, as the other components are obsolete without it, the report says. It states that the US needs to be performing 20 million tests per day before the economy can fully reopen - a dramatic increase from the current 120,000 tests per day. “

Don’t fall for the new “anti-body” protein tests. They are as flawed and as non-specific at isolating this particular coronavirus as the Covid 19 tests are.

Trump’s Phase-In problems Tied to Testing: Georgia Gov. Kemp decided to open bars and hair salons for business this week. Despite Trump’s claim he is trying to open the country sooner rather than later, he has bought into the traps set by the Deep State. Trump said Kemp’s decision violates the phase 1 guidelines the White House announced last week that recommends states wait to ease social distancing restrictions until there is widespread testing and a low level of community transmission. Trump said he respects Kemp’s right as a governor to make his own decision.

Oil dropped into Negative Price territory this week: All storage tanks are full and tankers are sitting full with nowhere to unload oil. On Monday, prices even went negative as nations were willing to pay anyone to take their oil. This means Saudis and OPEC will have to stop pumping. Oil fracking companies and shale oil business is going to have a huge fallout as they cannot pay their debt. It will be a boon to China always looking for oil. Revenue for Iran will stop, hurting it further. It will impact Venezuela and Mexico who look for oil revenue to back up their economies.

Filling Out the Census form: I see no reason to provide more information than the constitutional questions that relate to counting people for determining Congressional representation: How many people living in this residence, relationship, but do not fill out the names or any address (except city, state, and zip). Trump succumbed to the pressure and there is no citizenship question on the 2020 Census.

PREPAREDNESS TIP: THE TWO SIDES OF OPTIMISM by Andrew Skousen

James Stockdale, an air wing commander who was shot down over North Vietnam in 1965, spent seven and half years as a prisoner in the infamous “Hanoi Hilton” prison under the most excruciating of circumstances. When asked who didn’t make it out alive, he said:

Oh, that's easy, the optimists. Oh, they were the ones who said, 'We're going to be out by Christmas.' And Christmas would come, and Christmas would go. Then they'd say, 'We're going to be out by Easter.' And Easter would come, and Easter would go. And then Thanksgiving, and then it would be Christmas again. And they died of a broken heart.

One author called this the “Stockdale Paradox” because James survived based on a different kind of optimism:

I never lost faith in the end of the story, I never doubted not only that I would get out, but also that I would prevail in the end and turn the experience into the defining event of my life, which, in retrospect, I would not trade.

This is a very important lesson. You must never confuse faith that you will prevail in the end—which you can never afford to lose—with the discipline to confront the most brutal facts of your current reality, whatever they might be.

As you have just read in Joel’s analysis above, there are plenty of brutal facts awaiting us in the future that will challenge even the most mentally prepared. The first key to controlling your willpower and staying alive is to dispel yourself of false hopes. Don’t believe the propaganda; view the facts as clearly as possible. In World War I our leaders told us this “would be the war to end all wars.” A scant few years later we were embroiled in a second, even bigger war. They told Americans then that it would be over in year, and it dragged on for four. At least our land itself was unscathed. But the next war will change that, and it will make all prior wars look like a cakewalk.

Imagine the bewilderment and discouragement for modern Americans when our nation’s military bases get hit with nuclear weapons. With our military destroyed and our power knocked out, coupled with a Chinese bio weapons attack, our easy way of life will change forever. Discouragement will easily turn to dismay and then apathy as people will lose the will to keep living, working and fighting in those dark days.

The current coronavirus disruption provides a tiny glimpse into these feelings. Now that the novelty of the “novel” coronavirus, or Covid-19, has worn off, who among us is not tired of the new fearful, disrupted and hampered way of life—and the dramatic and sudden loss of all our liberty? It is discouraging to think that the effects of the coronavirus will continue only to be brought back again and again as they deem necessary to control us. And, then there is the economic depression (exacerbated by political decisions) we will constantly face, destroying our ability to prepare, maneuver and rebuild. The long-term effects of this small crisis should serve as warning sign to all to get prepared now to fight and survive. Here are some ideas:

Teach yourself how to carry on life’s regular activities without allowing your mind to succumb to unknown fears of the virus or the future. Make conscientious decisions about boosting your immunity with natural remedies and take responsible actions based on the risk in your area, without reacting to the fear in others around you. Someday, if not through this crisis, then the next one, there will be social pressures to join the crowd and outright authoritarian threats to give up essential rights such as accepting a universal vaccine, enrolling your kids in public school, giving up firearms and yielding many other true rights. Pay attention to the warning voice of conscience, either encouraging you to stand for your rights or warning you to switch tactics and fight a different way. In most cases this should not include a compromise of any principles.

Joel woke up this morning feeling impressed that we ought to prepare to become much more active in the protest movement and prepare for legal action. Start joining protests. If you have had a business forced to shut down, prepare to join in class action lawsuits to challenge these unconstitutional emergency orders in court. He is researching how best to proceed with these lawsuits and also to see if the National Commission on Uniform State Laws promoted all of these emergency laws among the various states around the same time period—which would indicate collusion to take away our rights. Don’t miss next week’s briefing on legal action.

The short essay by Stockdale “Courage Under Fire” explains, in a fairly short read, how the elements of pride, compromise, shame, fear, guilt, and status or reputation were all used in the POW camp for indoctrination—to make you bend your will. Your will is your own unless you relinquish it, and that is what authoritarians want: control of your mind and will. The prisoners who successfully resisted despite all the odds did so because they understood the power they still had over themselves. Even if it was only to choose not to grovel until punished, they achieved a small victory in the self-determination.

Despite the excruciating trials endured in these POW camps, the prisoners who found the kernel of will that could never be fully turned, ended up stronger and more invincible than they ever thought possible. Far from being broken men the rest of their lives, they came to appreciate the crucible of the experience, and the depth of courage and moral strength it gave them to choose the right no matter the opposition. With this knowledge, even in death our enemies can not conquer us, and we can have the real optimism needed to carry on through the depth of whatever trials may come and win in the truest sense. [END]
